Dear Drs. Biberson and Goemaere:

Thank you for your recent letter regarding the difficulties your organization has encountered in getting relief aid into Srebrenica, Gorazde and Zepa. I share your concern and frustrations and hold in very high regard all your organization has done to ease the suffering of so many in Bosnia.

I have discussed this matter with Ambassador Charles Thomas, as I know you have. As he indicated, we have little leverage over the Bosnian Serbs. We will, however, continue to call for the unhindered flow of humanitarian aid throughout Bosnia.

Again, thank you for writing.

Sincerely,

Alexander Vershbow
